Abstract: The Huarte family, official printers of Guipúzcoa, published the first newspapers of the Basque Country, in the 17th century. A Spanish gazette from Brussels and another gazette whose only collection is this one were published, and after that, in the 18th century, linked to the Guipuscoan Company of Caracas, they published a third one. We give now the facsimile of all them and an introductory study, both historical and linguistic.
