

Víctor Chávarri (1854-1900). Una biografía

(Víctor Chávarri (1854-1900). A biography)

261 p., 2005

ISBN: 84-8419-003-X

Copying of the summary pages is authorised

Alonso Olea, Eduardo J. (UPV/EHU. Fac. de CC. Sociales y de la Información. Sarriena, s/n 48940 Leioa): Víctor Chávarri (1854-1900). Una biografía (Víctor Chávarri (1854-1900). A biography) (Orig. es)

In: Víctor Chávarri. Una biografía, 1-261.

Abstract: The life of the famous Víctor Chavarri Salazar (1854-1900), from Portugalete, was relatively short but intense. In a little over twenty years he set up companies, built railroads, had interests in real estate, mining, etc., always in a constant process of innovation. His business determined his dedication to politics, and he was, in the late eighteen-nineties, the real cacique of Biskaia.

Key Words: Biographies. History of the Basque Country. 19th Century. Víctor Chávarri.