Abstract: This book is an attempt to illustrate a collection of old photographic images of the County of Treviño consisting of 696 photographs that have been compiled gathering them on a door-to-door basis. The pictures were there, they just had to be cared for and valued. Their quality is not uniform, some of the Pictures are marvellous and others not so much, but all belong to the memory of the people of Treviño and contribute to making a portrait of their families, their fields, customs, beliefs and celebrations.

Key Words: Treviño. County of Treviño. Photographs. Photographic images. 20th Century.
