Dear Sir,

Thank you for your letter dated the 11th March enclosing completed questionnaire for Mr. Manuel Irujo. We must advise you, however, that this has been received too late for inclusion in the second (1954) edition, but our editorial department will make a note to include the biography in the 3rd (1955) edition. We enclose a questionnaire and if you will kindly complete particulars for Sabino Arana-Goiri we shall be pleased to consider this also for inclusion in the 1955 edition.

Yours faithfully,
Burke's Peerage Ltd.,

Sir,

We have pleasure in advising you that your name has been considered for inclusion in the Biographical Section of the second (1954) edition of "The International Year Book & Statesmen's Who's Who", published by the proprietors of Burke's Peerage.

"The International Year Book & Statesmen's Who's Who" is recognised as the standard international work of reference for politicians, diplomats and government officials, for men prominent in law, industry, banking and economics; indeed for men of authority and standing in every country. Compiled with the active co-operation of Embassies and Government Departments, it comprises the following main sections:

The Reigning Royal Families of the World
International Organisations
States of the World
Diplomatic Representation Throughout the World
Biographical Section: Who's Who of the World

Further details of the contents under the main headings are set out on the enclosed Questionnaire. As you will see from the vast amount of detailed information included, it is the most comprehensive work of its kind to be published. No other single work of reference gives so much authoritative and practical information on international affairs, both political and commercial.

We shall be greatly obliged if you will kindly complete and return the enclosed Questionnaire as soon as possible, so that your entry may be prepared and a proof sent to you before the second edition goes to press. We would emphasise that this involves you in no expense or obligation whatsoever. An order form is included for your convenience, should you wish to take advantage of the special pre-publication price of £6. 6. 0. by reserving your copy of the second edition now.

Thanking you for your kind co-operation,

Yours faithfully,
