señor Manuel Urujo,

20

Dear Mr. Urujo,

Jon Bilbao has suggested I write you.

My novel, A SILENCE IN BILBAO will be published by Doubleday on June 6. However the advance copies will be out on May 1.

We are anxious to get a statement from the Basque Govt in Exile about the book. We are going to present the book at many of the Basque Fairs this summer.

I will ask the publisher Doubleday to mail a copy to you as soon as it is out. perhaps he can mail it by air. Then if you (and I know you are busy but Jon said I might urge you in his name) could read the book quickly - or read some of it, and send a statement (brief) about your opinion - it would be greatly appreciated. perhaps the president would sign the statement. would you send the statement to me at the above address?

The book is dedicated to Jon Bilbao, one of three men to whom it is dedicated. Jon is helping us in every way to try to give the book good publicity. It is impossible to say how much he, and other Basques, helped me.

Very gratefully yours,

Margaret Shedd

Dear Miss Shedd:

Recibí su carta del 14 Abril y su libro "A silence in Bilbao". En cuanto llegó la edición la pasé al boletín, para qué, después de leído el texto, fuera hecha referencia al mismo. Hoy sale esta referencia. Le incluyo un ejemplar.

Agradescó mucho a usted su finera y al Prof. Bilbao su atención. Y felicito a usted por el libro, esperando que no sea el último que usted escriba ocupandose de los vascos.

Cordialmente

Manuel de Irujo
